DAYTONA BEACH

DAYTONA BEACH

Miss Senter is visiting her cousin in Holly Hill for a few weeks.

Miss Freeman left Tuesday for St. Augustine. She will accompany Mrs. Powell on her European tour next summer.

Mr. C. E. Sparber left last week for several interior towns, including Espanola, and Deland, where he will be interested in buying and selling horses.

Mrs. Voorhis, of Boston, Mass., who has been quite ill at the Surf Crest, has removed to Dr. Davis' on corner of Seabreeze avenue and Valley street.

Messdames Garrett and Myers, of Pennsylvania, and Mr. Keene, guests of the Surf Crest, left Tuesday for Peoria, Ill.

The Clarendon orchestra will be at the New Seaside Inn for the remainder of the season, which will be good news to the devotees of music.

Mrs. J. C. Kreusch and daughter Katherine, of Anderson, Ind., left for home Tuesday morning. Mr. Kreusch remained until Thursday, when he left for Palm Beach with his father, where they will tour for a few weeks longer. Mrs. Kreusch was accompanied by a relative, Mrs. Kilgore, who was a guest at the Clarendon, and escaped from the fire with a portmanteau of jewels, but lost all other belongings.

Messrs. Fairfax, Ludlow and Win. Shoemaker will give a dance at the casino Monday evening.

The Surf Crest guests enjoyed an oyster supper on the beach this week, which was given by Mrs. E. H. Rogers, who has had a most successful season thus far, and spares no pains to interest her guests.

Mrs. Doubledfield and daughter, of Des Moines, Ia., are guests at Mrs. E. E. Johnson's.

Mr. John MacRae, a traveling salesman, visited his wife for a few days last week.

Mr. and Miss Holdredge, of Madina, N. Y., have pleasant suite of rooms at the E. E. Johnson stone house.

Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Pickett, who recently returned from a two weeks' trip to Palm Beach, will be located for the season at Mr. Williamson's on Seabreeze avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Buie, of Lake City, are spending a few weeks at the Lone Bay Inn.

Mrs. T. E. Robinson and little daughter leave the 26th for their home at Rock Falls, Ill., after several months stay in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs, of Spencer, Ill., friends of Mr. and Mrs. Livingston, are guests here for a few weeks.

Mrs. Loretta Ward has purchased two lots, 100 ft. frontage, on Palmetto avenue, where she will erect a cottage in the spring. This is especially pleasant news as Mrs. Ward has many friends who are glad to have her become a permanent winter resident.

Mr. Hassett, wife and two children, of Cincinnati, O., are guests at the Pinehurst.

New Seaside Inn arrivals: A. G. North and wife, New York; Wm. Horne, New York; J. Hemming, New York; Miller, C. W. Biedly, Harry Morris, Robert Brown, Dan McKay, Deland; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hull, New Smyrna; Mrs. F. E. Chapman, Michigan; E. Hansel, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Pratt, Toronto, Can.

Daytona Beach Hotel arrivals: Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hawkes, Sally Hawkes, New York; Eugene Gray, Henry Gilmore, Boston, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Lanont, New York City.

SEABREEZE

The usual quietness which dawns upon the moving populace was suddenly disturbed Sunday morning in the conflagration of the Clarendon. The auto signals so constantly sounded awakened the sleeping multitude to view one of the largest fires which has ever occurred here. Towering against the beautiful blue of the sky, blended an endless flame of blackened smoke and lurid flames greedily devouring it seemed the pitiful but majestic building. The streets were filled with hundreds who were hastening to render assistance, which was of no avail. The origin of the fire is not known. The night watchman made his usual round at five o'clock when there was no disturbing element. A few moments afterwards the second bakers were on duty, when a fire was discovered near the coal bin, under the kitchen in the northern wing. Heroic efforts were made to avert further progress of the fire, but it gained such rapid headway that efforts were futile. Over four hundred fought valiantly to save the beautiful hotel, and among those who ably assisted was Dr. Dobbins, who with others, used the fire extinguisher, and with only one bucket of water at the right moment, could have saved what is now an irreparable loss. This calls to mind the fire which was imposed a few weeks ago at Daytona Beach, on a progressive citizen for laying a few feet of water pipe, with a good system of water works. There were over 200 guests, all of whom escaped unhurt, with the exception of a frightful scare. Many lost everything, some valuable jewels and keepsakes. The grounds were covered with trunks and articles which were hurriedly removed. Twelve policemen did duty, but the lockers were opened and the wines were freely distributed to the liquor loving until proper steps were taken. Only the casino remains as a part of the ill-fated hotel. In a short interview which your correspondent had with the proprietor, Dr. E. L. Potter, he said that he hoped to rebuild. This early it is perhaps hard to conjecture the full loss, but as nearly as can be estimated the loss is $200,000, with an insurance of $81,000. Dr. Potter has the sincere sympathy of a host of friends, who share with him this great loss, all of whom trust that the charred remains of the Clarendon may be speedily replaced by as stately and imposing hostelry as that of the past.

Mrs. N. Phillips and daughter, Mrs. Frank Myers, and Mrs. J. P. Stevens, from Atlanta, Ga., are an agreeable party at Miss Russell's cottage for a few weeks. The high school pupils are all interested in the Bush & Safford piano contest in securing votes for the piano, and thus securing the library so greatly needed. The tennis grounds at the Seabreeze school has been sadly neglected. Miss Lee Craig Bowers, one of the prime movers in the athletic sport, and the establishment of some is now at Stetson University.

Mrs. S. S. Jones is further adding to the beauty of her possessions by the addition of several fine orange trees from the famous Knox & Beed nursery, including the well known varieties, Ruby, Comer and Heart's Late.

Mr. M. L. Drake, of Ormond, will construct a cottage on the recently purchased lot on Oak Ridge, owned by Mr. Garfield, of Boston.

One hundred and twenty employees of the Clarendon left Tuesday for the north. Some who were able to get employment remained. The Ormond gave material aid in the beneficent sum of $1000 in cash and four autos full of clothing. Dr. E. L. Potter very ably assisted them in comfortably clothing, and in transportation fees.

County Superintendent A. O. Botts visited the Seabreeze school Tuesday.

Mr. J. S. Johnson, Mr. W. H. Raulerson and J. G. Raulerson have bought lots 13, 14, 15, Block 31, where they will build cottages in the near future.

Mr. L. B. Sweet and wife, of Elyria, Ohio, leave for home next month. Mr. Sweet is a real estate agent and has been hustling during his stay in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Toppin, of Michigan, who have been guests of Mrs. Brown, left Tuesday for home.

Miss Gladys Wannacott was pleasantly surprised Saturday night, by a bevy of boys and girls congregating at her home in honor of her birthday. A charming evening culminated the happy event.

CAMP CASSADAGA

by the arisen statesman, Abraham Lincoln. Appropriate musical selections were rendered by local talent.

On Saturday afternoon an address was delivered by the writer, the subject of the discourse being, "Be True to the Heavenly Vision."

The services during the week were all largely attended.

Sunday, the 14th, was a very interesting day, and many visitors were present from surrounding towns.

At 10:30 Mr. Oscar A. Edgerly was the speaker. His inspirers dealt with the general lessons taught by the philosophy of Spiritualism. His lecture was considered by all a valuable contribution to the day's success.

At 2:30 Prof. J. Clegg Wright delivered the address, his inspirers responding to the desire of the audience by answering questions. The questions were answered as only Clegg Wright could answer them, their perfect elucidation giving the fullest satisfaction.

At 7:00 p. m. Mrs. D. A. Morrell delivered an address at the pavilion, her subject being, "The Potency of Invisible Forces." The lecture was characterized by eloquence and power, and was eminently instructive.

Mrs. Scott Burton, of Delray, a native of New York, is located at Mrs. J. D. Palmers' for a two week's visit. Her husband, R. H. Burton, has instigated the irrigation system, which is proving a great success in more ways than one. Mr. and Mrs. Shaftner and daughter, of Shelby, middle Tennessee, are late arrivals at Brigham Hall, also C. F. Bullock and L. E. Bullock, of Onset, Mass.

The Association officers have been very busy in improving the camp; notably among these improvements are the brick sidewalks, which are such a boon to our citizens. The Association is under obligations to the Bond Brick Co. for the gift of the bricks and hands quite unused to labor for years, have worked hard to bring about this result. The campers and visitors are indebted to the Brick Company and to all who have assisted in this work.

The cottage owners are, many of them improving their places by building brick walks from the sidewalk to their doors.

Arrivals at the Cassadaga are: B. F. DuBois and wife, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. E. B. Garrett and Miss Grace Garrett, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. J. A. Mills, Hardwick Mills, Eugene Mills and Dan Mills, all of Raleigh, N. C.

C. E. S. Twing, Lake Helen, Fla. Feb. 16, Editor Deland News:

Dear Sir:—I feel that in justice to your reporter at this camp, who is one of our most eminent speakers, a report of her work ought to be embodied with the report submitted, accordingly I take the liberty of sending the following item:

Saturday afternoon, February 14, Mrs. Carrie E. S. Twing was the speaker at Camp Cassadaga. She delivered one of her inimitable, soul-inspiring lectures, replete with spiritual food, and helpfulness for the sorrowful dwellers of this earth of ours. All of earth's people would do well to take her advice, and ever be true to the "Heavenly Vision."

OSCAR A. EDGERLY.

P. P. P. Cures Rheumatism

Read what Nicholas Lang, the largest retail grocer in Savannah says about P. P. P.

F. V. LIPPMAN, Savannah, Ga.,

Dear Sir:—

For many years I consumed much medicine, and in fact tried every means in my power to get cured of that terrible disease, rheumatism, which had undermined my health. I visited Hot Springs, Ark., without gaining relief, and at last in sheer desperation I took P. P. P. (Lippman's great remedy), and was in a short time entirely cured. In the eight years since that time I have not had a symptom of rheumatism.

P. P. P. did the work to my entire satisfaction and made a quick and permanent cure.

Yours truly,

Nicholas Lang.
